

City Management Systems are provided with the support of Pol-Net applications of images, sound and position data obtained in accordance with the legislation in order to enable more effective struggle against crime and criminals, technological possibilities to be used in traffic regulation and to provide automatic notification of users , modularly developed systems as a whole.

KGYS system consists of 3 main groups.

- Imaging System
- Call Management System
- Mobile Applications System